

CRAIG COLLINS TURNER

BEAUTIFULLY
Brutal

Craig Collins Turner, former guitarist of Quiet Riot, Network, Highlander fame, (and beloved Musician's Institute guitar instructor), was sadly lost to the world after a fierce and courageous fight with cancer. These final tracks that would go on to become Beautifully Brutal, were recorded during the final year of Craig's life — sonically reflecting the tumultuous beauty and frailty of his daily struggles. Working side by side with producer Dan Leffler, CCT's posthumous album audibly captured ten fierce, diverse and heavy tracks. This album is a celebration of Craig Collins Turner, being released on September 29th, 2018, his birthday. This is Beautifully Brutal.

*Proceeds from this album will go to the John Wayne Cancer Institute.
